DATE: 18 January 2025

This Program was Conducted by DR. YASHVANT LANGORE for the students to raise awareness about the issue of sexual harassment and the Important of Creating of a Culture of Respect, Consent and zero tolerance for harassment.

Introduction

Sexual harassment in educational institutions is a serious issue that undermines students' rights to a safe and conducive learning environment. Awareness programs aimed at preventing sexual harassment are essential to ensure students understand their rights and the legal protections available to them. This report highlights the importance of awareness for students, relevant laws, and statistical data on the prevalence of sexual harassment in educational settings.

Legal Framework

Several laws exist to protect students from sexual harassment in educational institutions. Key laws include:

The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition, and Redressal) Act, 2013 (India): While this law primarily applies to workplaces, it is also applicable to educational institutions, requiring the formation of Internal Complaints Committees (ICCs) in schools and universities.

The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012 (India): This act provides protection for children under 18, addressing sexual harassment, abuse, and exploitation, with provisions for redressal and punishment.

These laws help ensure that students have legal avenues to report harassment and receive support.

Statistics on Sexual Harassment in Educational Institutions

Sexual harassment remains a significant issue in schools and universities worldwide. Some relevant statistics include:

According to the Ministry of Women and Child Development, nearly 60% of girls reported facing sexual harassment during their school years.

These figures highlight the need for heightened awareness and preventive measures in educational environments.

Awareness Programs for Students

Effective awareness programs for students are vital in preventing sexual harassment. Key components include:

Education on Rights and Consent: Teaching students about consent, respect, and their legal rights regarding sexual harassment.

Workshops and Seminars: Regular sessions that educate students on how to identify harassment, how to report it, and the available legal recourse.

Safe Reporting Mechanisms: Establishing clear, confidential reporting systems where students can report incidents without fear of retaliation. Schools and colleges should have dedicated grievance redressal cells.

Active Involvement of Teachers and Administrators: Teachers and administrators should be trained to identify signs of harassment and take appropriate action.

Conclusion

Raising awareness about sexual harassment among students is crucial for fostering a safe and supportive educational environment. Through legal protections, comprehensive awareness programs, and accessible reporting systems, educational institutions can effectively prevent and address harassment. By educating students about their rights and encouraging responsible behavior, we can work towards eradicating sexual harassment in educational settings and ensure that all students can learn in a safe environment.

Mr. Sourabh M Shaw , M.D, MAKS Group, addressed in his speech that how India got independence; it is the day when we got freedom from the British rule after many years of hard struggle by the great freedom fighters of India. It took sacrifices of many freedom fighters and several decades of struggle from 1857 to 1947. Finally the result of long years of struggle came in front on 15th of August 1947 when India got freedom. As we all know that Independence Day is an auspicious occasion for all of us. India's Independence Day is the most important day to all the Indian citizens and has been mentioned forever in the history. Independence brings in basic fundamental rights to all the citizens of this country; We all should feel proud of our Motherland; to be an Indian and admire our fortune that we took birth in the land of an Independent India; History of slave India reveals everything that how our ancestors and forefathers had worked hard and suffered all the brutality. We cannot imagine by sitting here that how hard they fought for independence from the British rule.

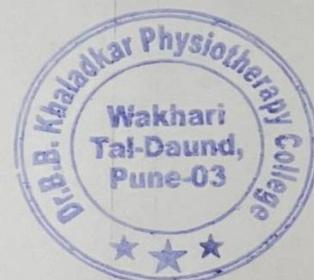

We celebrate Independence Day every year on 15th of August to remember the first day of freedom of India as well as remember all the sacrifices of the great leaders who have sacrificed their lives in getting freedom for India.
